

Churches in Moab

Moab has a wonderful community of churches; most rural areas of Utah have only one church.

An attractive and meaningful facility for those who wish to worship; the fellowship hall has many uses, often for community events; church sponsors day care program much needed in our community.

It is a necessary thing for people to be free to worship where they please.

